will be no services at Immanuel Church tomorrow; at Trinity Church, Rev. G. E. Barber will preach the morning and evening at the M. E. Church South, J. Callahan will preach at the morning services, and at the Second Presbyterian Church Rev. J. R. Crook is expected to preach. In the other churches the services will be as usual.

WILL PUNISH OFFENDERS.

Every boy who attempts to observe Halloween in Washington in anything but a decorous manner, and is caught, will be haled before Police Court and held responsible for his acts. According to Mr. Sylvester, there will be policemen everywhere—blue-coats and plain-clothes men. Extra bicycle men will do duty in the suburbs. The police are determined that there shall be no destroying of property, and anyone caught carrying away a gate, or any other useful article, will have trouble. The police department of Alexandria will take similar precautions and hold all persons responsible who defend property or commit disorder.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of this city was held last night, when the committee which had been appointed for the purpose presented resolutions of respect to the memory of the late John Callahan. The resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote. The special committee on the upper King street improvements presented their final report. As heretofore stated, the work will be commenced at an early day, and it is said will be completed by the first of January. The proposed improvement of north Washington street was mentioned at the meeting, but no action was taken.

WEEK-END EXCURSIONS.

The Potomac and Chesapeake Steamboat Company is offering a week-end trip to Old Point and Norfolk for $2 the round trip. The steamer St. Johns leaves Alexandria at 5:30 o'clock this evening, and arrives at Old Point and Norfolk at about 7 a. m. tomorrow, which gives every one a chance to spend a pleasant day at Old Point or Norfolk at little expense and no loss of time from business. The new company is meeting with much encouragement, which is attributed to its good service and accommodations.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Oston presiding]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:
Thomas Manon, charged with vagrancy, was fined $10.
John Trumbull, charged with disorderly conduct, had his case continued.
Henry H. Davis, charged with non-support of his wife and child, was dismissed, the accused promising to provide for them in future.

THE WILL OF JOHN CALLAHAN.

The will of John Callahan, late vice president and general manager of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, has been admitted to probate. The will leaves the entire estate, valued at approximately $75,000, to the widow, Mrs. Bridget Callahan, who, with her daughter, Mrs. Reg. is named executrix. Mrs. Callahan, however, renounced her right to act, and the letters of administration were given to her daughter.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

As has been stated, Rev. W. J. Callahan, a missionary to Japan, will preach in the Washington street M. E. Church South Sunday at 11 a. m. On Monday at 8 p. m. he will deliver a lecture on Japan and illustrate it with finely colored stereoscopic views. There will be no charge for admission. A collection will be taken. The public is cordially invited.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Revival services will begin at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow. Rev. Geo. E. Barber, of Washington, D. C., will conduct the services. His subject at 11 a. m. will be "I am glad that I have the opportunity to speak for myself," and at 7:30 p. m. "Who touched me."

THE MARKET.

There was practically no change in the market this morning. Eggs had advanced some county people were selling them at 38 cents a dozen; others were disposing of them at 35 cents. The prices of other articles were in the main as those of last Saturday.

AMUSEMENTS.

This is the last night of the amusement week and a great treat is in store for all who visit the two houses. The Opera House was crowded last night to witness the production "My New Hampshire Home," as given by the Guy Johnson Stock Company. This is a great show and is well played. See it tonight.
